

MEDIA = VIRUS

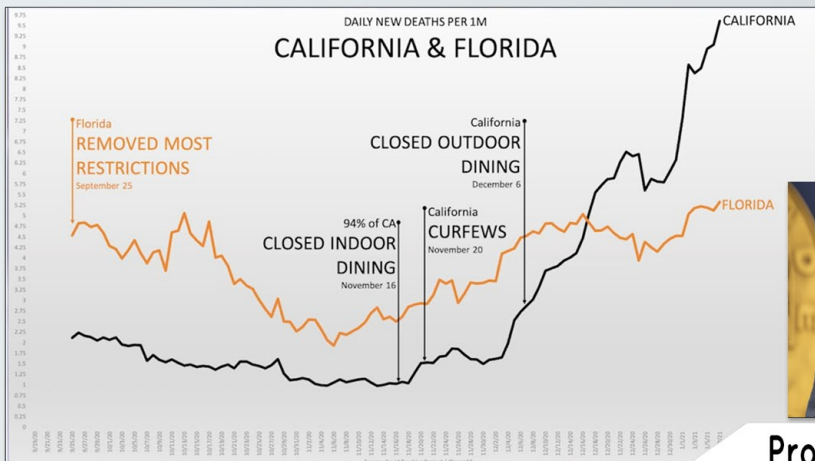

THE MANIPULATION AND FEAR-INDUCED MSM REPORTING IS CONTINUING IT'S VERBAL FEAR SPREADING UNABATED - Are we being abused?

When people are in an abusive relationship, they need to be helped. Mostly, many are offering their advice and help. Nobody wants to see others suffer. Unfortunately, the world's governments and MSM are not there for us - they're there to push their agendas. Social media also has played its part in the spreading of misinformation. Look at the graph below. It's intended to determine if someone is in an abusive relationship. It seems that we as citizens are being abused by MSM, the state & Big Tech who do not have our best interest at heart. See them for what they have become during this forced and poorly handled pandemic!

QUOTE: When you are in an abusive relation, it's time to get out and find someone better.

WELL, WE CERTAINLY NEED IT!

In case you're still not convinced to stay home for you & ur beloved ones... here's a picture from Italy!

Croatian earthquake survivors not Italian patients

Posts with images of hospital beds and patients being treated on the streets are going viral on social media with the claim that hospitals in Italy have run out of space due to the spread of coronavirus.

MISLEADING

This is daily. There is no more space in the hospitals. Think twice before you put your foot outside the house.

COVID death? or not wearing a helmet?

Zhang W. sent us another version of the video shared online, which is a fraction of a second longer. If you pause the video, you can see that there is a motorbike or scooter lying on its side on the sidewalk a few metres from the person on the ground. Also, at 0:04, you can see that the concrete barrier around a nearby tree has been damaged.

On Wednesday, Peerapon Anutarasoot, a fact-checker from Sure And Share Center in Thailand, managed to get a verdict about an image showing a man falling at the airport. He was actually just drunk and not infected by the 2019 coronavirus.
