

QUOTE: Every war in the past 50 years is a result of media lies - Julian Assange

dw.com/en/fact-check-ukraines-ghost-of-kyiv-fighter-pilot/a-6095182

A collage of three news snippets. The left snippet features a portrait of Pyotr Ilyich Tchaikovsky on the left. To its right, the 'channel24' logo is at the top. Below it, a navigation bar includes 'TOP STORIES', 'FOR SUBSCRIBERS', 'LOCAL', 'INTERNATIONAL', 'FILM', 'TV', and 'RSS'. The main headline reads 'Concert cancellations and tribute performances the latest in support for Ukraine' with a sub-headline 'channel24 Compiled by Bronwyn McKay'. A date stamp '28 Feb' is visible. The middle snippet has a headline 'Zagreb orchestra cuts Tchaikovsky pieces'. The text below states: 'The Zagreb philharmonic orchestra removed two compositions by famed Russian composer Tchaikovsky from its concert on Friday in solidarity with Ukraine after Russia invaded its neighbour.' A quote follows: '"Due to the new situation in Ukraine that affects the whole world and brings terrifying unease, the Zagreb philharmonic orchestra... voices solidarity with the Ukrainian people and changes the program of tonight's concert," it said on its website.' The right snippet features a black and white cat with a speech bubble saying 'А просто кошка'. The headline reads 'International Cat Federation bans Russian felines from competitions'. The text below states: 'International Cat Federation bans Russian felines from competitions' and 'Federation Internationale Feline, which hosts over 700 cat shows a year said it "cannot just witness these atrocities and do nothing"'. At the bottom of the collage, a URL is provided: 'news24.com/channel/Music/News/concert-cancellations-and-tribute-performances-the-latest-in-support-for-ukraine-20220228-2'.